The HSUS bill that has been sweeping the country has arrived in Texas: HB 3180 was filed yesterday.

Various HSUS versions have been killed in committee in Colorado, Montana, Nebraska, and New Hampshire to date. We must do no less in Texas. This is an "animal rights" campaign to end all dog and cat breeding and has nothing to do with animal welfare as existing animal cruelty laws address that already.

Texas Humane Legislation Network says they are working with HSUS on this bill. We'll have a thorough analysis later.
